Warning: There may be spoilers in the question!

On page 127, Steve tells Eddie that if you want to do things God's way, you shouldn't kiss before you're already committed to marry.

Do you agree with him? Why or why not?

Can you find Bible verses to support your opinion? Is there anything in the Bible that specifically teaches us about pre-marital relations?

Suggestions for finding answers in the Bible:

Consider what you studied about temptation from the lesson in Chapter 12. Look at the wisdom of Proverbs.
