Warning: There may be spoilers in the question!

On pages 132-133, Heather talks about hyperbole. She gives the example of Jesus saying to not let your left hand know what your right was doing.

Can you find that passage? Can you find other places where the Bible uses hyperbole?

Hyperbole was a common literary device in ancient literature. How might that affect your understanding of some of the Bible, especially prophecy?

Suggestions for finding answers in the Bible:

look for extreme words like ‘utterly.’ Check out ‘crucify’ and ‘die’ in the epistles. Jesus said, “If your right hand causes you to sin ....”
