

A Novel Approach to Discipleship
Question from Seasons of Change Chapter 21

by Cheryl Okimoto
author of Seasons of Change

Warning: There may be spoilers in the question!

On pages 146-147, Heather talks about Steve's concern that he won't be a good father and her own worries that she can't have children. Nalani tells her that she can't know for sure that things will work out but she can trust God.

Do you have personal experiences with trusting God for something as big as Heather's concerns?

What does the Bible say about trusting God? What are some of the promises he's given us that could apply to the situation in this story? (Warning: Be sure you keep verses in their context. Don't read something into them that isn't actually there.)

Suggestions for finding answers in the Bible:

Proverbs 3:5-6 is a good place to start. What does it tell us to trust God for?
